The House Divided

In the Bible, the terms house, family, and race carry a synonymous meaning. In truth, the Bible is the story of the Adamic race from Adam unto the present. One of the seven things that God hates is those who sow discord among brothers, or in other words, those who are by birthright among the racial family of the Living God. The act of sowing discord means to destroy the unity, the bond of peace, among brothers. It is the act of dividing the house of God against itself in this broad sense of the meaning of discord, this is precisely what Satan and those who possess his diabolical mentality did in the beginning and it is what those of the kingdom of Satan continue to do. Thus, Satan's strategy from the very beginning has been the diabolical principle of divide and conquer. To achieve this, the Satanic mentality has created every counterfeit and apostate religious principle that exists among men. We are emphatically told in God's Word that a house divided against itself cannot stand. It may also be said that a family divided and set at enmity or war within itself cannot continue, but will eventually be destroyed by means of they, themselves aiding and abetting their natural enemies in their own destruction. If we continue to carry this Biblical principle to its fullest intent and meaning, then it may unequivocally be said that a race divided against itself cannot continue to exist.

These are the most pertinent principles of our age, for if the lessons of history are not learned and if we fail as a people to grasp the continuity of the wisdom of our race, we shall cease to exist as a people in the same manner that thousands of species of animals have passed into the oblivion of nonexistence. The wisdom of our forebearers cries out and echoes into the twentieth century telling us in the pages of that most ancient wisdom of our race that a house divided against itself cannot stand. It therefore becomes the duty of each genuine member of the birthright people of Almighty God to fulfill their duty to their ordained racial family, for the first duty of any created being of Almighty God is the duty of survival. Not only has God written this law in His laws of nature, but He has repeatedly conveyed this holy principle to us through the inspired prophets and writers. Today, the Aryan race stands as a house divided against itself. It pursues its existence in continued willful ignorance of the collective wisdom of its ancestral patriarchs. The majority of the White race has been deceived into the belief of those Satanic principles that God says will result in its sure destruction. To understand this more clearly, we must look for a moment at the ancient oracles best preserved of the Aryan race. We must turn back into the history of our people conveyed to us in our Bibles, and when we do, we catch a fleeting glimpse of the origin of our destruction. We are told of the Adamic family of man how that Adam man was created in the likeness and image of God, and how that he once walked and talked with the Living God and knew the Mind of God and was inspired to think the thoughts of God.

There we are given the picture of a man of honor, of intellectual integrity, but we are also told that the first Adamics were seduced by diabolical philosophy and counterfeit wisdom. We are told that many of the first Adamics lost the quality of honor because they capitulated to the enemies of God. We are told that they were driven from the Park of Eden and because of their failure and sin, because of their loss of honor, that they aided and abetted the enemies of God to set in motion a new cosmotic or world order and by their failure, the Bible says that Satan became the god of that Satanic world order, the ruler of the kingdom of darkness. We are also told that although many of the Adamic family lost the endowment of that quality of God that we call honor by capitulating to Satan by means of surrendering their sovereign will, to become mental slaves of the father of all liars, that the creator God provided a way and hope of returning the authority and rulership to the Adamic family. We are told in the Bible and even in the legends of the pantheist nations that God the Father would send a Christ or Anointed One who would defeat Satan and become the satisfaction of the honor of God. The New Testament of Jesus Christ is a living witness of the infallible Word of the God who cannot lie and it tells that the true Christ did come, that He did satisfy the justice and the honor of God by becoming the sacrificial Lamb of God and shedding His innocent blood that by means of His just and innocent blood, He might make it possible for the racial family of God to be restored to the sanity of God and to the honor of God.

Thus, the New Testament teaches that those who enter covenant by the blood of Christ, who cease to be enemies of God by means of making peace with God through Jesus Christ, are not only returned to the sanity of intellectual integrity and thereby endowed with honor, but are also returned to honorable membership in the family of the Living God. But Christ did more than make it possible for those enslaved by the fleshly mind to return to the family of God. He also defeated the Satan of this world in the spiritual realm and took back all authority for rulership and government. The Word of Separation declares that when Christ had defeated the satans and made a show of them openly, He ascended on high to establish an incorruptible government, the Government beyond the corruption of cowardly men, a Government beyond the effects of treason and corruption. An eternal Government without end, and so, by the first century, the satans of this world and those members of his counterfeit family began corrupting Christianity to set in motion apostate and degenerate forms of the true Christian state that exists only in Christ Jesus. But God the Father, in His omnipotence, knew the tactics of the warfare of Satan, and so He gave His royal family an infallible means to identify Satanic corruptions and gave the people of God His Word and once and for all time delivered to the Separated Society of Christ as an anchor for the establishment of their minds and souls, and as the only true and valid test for genuine government in Christ Jesus.

The Word of God in its entirety is in truth like a hedge of thorns set about the people of God for their protection and salvation. It is the authoritative test of all true principles of Scripture and it is therefore the only way and means that we as a race or as individuals may be saved. The satans of this world and those who are their willing slaves have long since been aware of the power of the true and genuine Word of God. Therefore, since the establishment of the everlasting Government of Jesus Christ and the bringing to fruition of the Christian State, Satan has sought every means to deceive the people of God by seeking to corrupt the Word of God and to establish counterfeit and false standards and translations of the Word of God. While Christian Separatism is in truth not a denomination nor a school of theology, it is however the true Christology taught by the Word of the Living God. It is therefore the persuasion of the Separated Ones and it knows no standard but the standard of truth and no government but the government of the Lord Jesus Christ. Christian Separatism is therefore the practice of the identical faith and persuasion of that which is taught in God's Word and that which was practiced by the first century Christians. Christian Separatist Christology takes only as its rule of faith and practice the Holy Word of the Living God in its totality. And while we are very much aware that all the apostate and counterfeit denominations and religious cults make this same claim, there are however a number of enlightened facts that do make Christian Separatism uniquely different from the claims of those liars who in truth continue to worship Baal and who are in truth Satan worshippers posing as Christians.

One of the first principles that distinguishes Christian Separatism from counterfeit Christianity is the fact that we do not accept the authority, religiously or politically, of any agents of the Satanic world order. This includes both the Talmudic Jews and the Masonic pagans and all other forms of Syncretic, Satanic philosophy that calls the Living God a liar. In practical terms, this means that we do not accept the Masoretic Text of the Talmudic Jews of the so-called Hebrew to have any inspiration or religious authority inasmuch as the Masoretic text was written and corrupted by Talmudic Jews who changed their name to Masoretes and set themselves up as religious authorities over the Western Nations for the purpose of bringing about their avowed plan for Jewish world order. The Christian Separatist Communion counts only those Scriptures authoritative that Jesus Christ and His Holy Apostles recognized to be Scripture, which in truth was the Septuagint caused to be written by Almighty God 280 years before the Advent of the Lord Jesus Christ. We unequivocally hold, as a standard of truth, and as a principle of Christian Separatist Unity that our Lord Jesus Christ and His Governmental Appointed Ambassadors and Officers did not recognize any other so-called Scriptures than the Septuagint which was written in the Greek. This means that all those persons in the late twentieth century who have built their religious practice upon the perversions and deceptions of the Talmudic Jews and who hold the Talmudic Jews as religious authorities for their so-called faith are slaves of the Jews and are therefore Judeos, and at the very least, are grossly stupid and deceived.

Thus, Christian Separatism teaches that the true road to Aryan unity and the establishment and maintenance of the Christian state can only be achieved when men are willing to wake up to their deception and repent from that deception to accept as their only standard of the Word of God, those Scriptures written in the Greek, both of the Old Testament Septuagint and of the New Covenant Greek, that Jesus Christ and His Apostles recognized to be the Scripture. Thus, it should be very apparent to any rational person that the first step toward bringing to fruition the Christian State and saving the White race from the certain corruption and destruction of the enemies of God is for all true White men to follow the example of the Lord Jesus Christ and His Government officials and recognize the only Bible that He recognized to be the Word of God. Until men are willing to do this, they will continue to be manipulated and deceived by the enemies of God and they will continue to behave like a mad dog chasing his own tail. Therefore, the first step to the healing of the House of Jacob is for men to know what writings Jesus Christ recognized to be Scripture.

The second essential principle held by Christian Separatism is that once men know what the true Word of God is for men to make up their minds to believe the laws and principles of our Father and to practice them. But as surely as men ignore the first principle of true unity herein stated above and as they willfully and knowingly continue to ignore the truth of history and of the Scripture, for which, incidentally, they will answer to the Word of God as traitors to their race and to God Almighty, it is just as certain that the same conmen who aid and abet the Jews in maintaining their establishment of evil are also the same voices who claim that the Word of the Living God cannot be understood, that the persuasion or faith of Christ and thereby true knowledge of the Governmental principles of Christ cannot be learned; such men are liars and enemies of the White Race.

Let us turn through the Scriptures and see what God's Word has to say as to whether we are duty bound to learn the principles of Government taught in the Scripture and duty bound thereby to be of one accord, one mind, and to speak and teach the same things.

The Biblical Basis of Unity

Christianity is not a religion, it is a life in Christ Jesus. But on the other hand, Christianity must find its expression in the physical world as a religion. True Bible Christianity is solely based upon the authority of the Christian Covenant, popularly referred to as the New Testament. The New Covenant of Jesus Christ, that is to say, the writings of the Apostles of Christ, boldly and unequivocally claim to be of the true inspiration of the mind of Almighty God. Therefore, to reject the inspiration and the authority of the Bible is to reject Christianity. This is a simple principle that seems to continuously elude the vast majority of people who profess to be Christians. Nevertheless, to reject Christianity is to reject Christ, and the Scriptures make it clear that to reject Jesus Anointed is to reject the only hope of salvation that God Almighty has afforded to the sons of Adam. Thus, when we say that the Christian writings are inspired, we are affirming that in the original autographs of the Greek Testament, the Christian writings are the Word of the Living God. The Bible teaches that the New Covenant, with its ethical, moral norms and standards, is the very inspired Word of God given by the Father of lights to His chosen race and children. We see this confirmed in the plainest and most forthright language in II Timothy 3:16-17 and II Peter 1:20-21 and I Corinthians 2:9-13.

Therefore, to state that the Bible is God's Word is to affirm that it can be completely trusted to teach the truth, because the God of the Bible tells us that He is a God who cannot lie (Hebrews 6:18; Titus 1:2), and since Christians serve a God who cannot lie, then we know that which He has conveyed to us in His Holy Word cannot be a lie. In plain language, this means that since the Bible is God's Word and God's speaking to His people, the Bible can in no way teach a lie, endorse a lie, or help make a lie. These Biblical facts lead to the rational and logical conclusion that the truth of God's Word is absolute truth. In other words, wherein the Word of God is concerned, it stands independent of any and all subjective conditions or subjective reasoning of the person who comes to understand and know it.

In plain language, God's truth will live and abide forever as the objective standard of truth, irrespective and regardless of the subjective philosophies that men may seek to impose upon the pure Word of God. This means of course that the absolute truth of any proposition cannot be changed by individual persons or religious groups of people who draw erroneous conclusions about what the Bible actually teaches. In other words, men, who in their arrogance and finite subjective reasoning, set out as individuals or as groups to impose their subjective philosophy upon the Scriptures, do in no way change the reality of the absolute truth of God's Word. In other words, the absolute truth of God's Word remains a constant anchor to the soul throughout all ages to all who reverently and fearfully come to obey it, not seeking to add anything to it or take anything from it. This means that the absolute truth of God's Word in its total contextual teaching of those principles, norms, and standards of law, will remain forever as the source of absolute truth. When those who have sought to deceitfully use and twist the Scriptures to their own damnation by seeking to create another gospel, when all such men have received the reward of their defiance and disobedience to the Living God, the Word of God shall still remain as the beacon of truth and the anchor of the soul for all who truly seek to be reestablished through Christ with communion with their Heavenly Father.

This understanding and Christian Separatist view of Scripture is in sharp contrast and opposition to the popular teachings of the trend of this modern age. The modernist, humanist philosophy, so popular now in the late 20th Century, that teaches the false concept of relativism is seen to be in diametrical opposition to the truths of inspiration that the Scriptures claim for themselves. Relativism holds as a tenet of its antichrist philosophy that the apprehension of truth is dependent upon the reaction of the person or mind knowing, and therefore it concludes that the object is never really known, but that truth is only relative as it appears to the individual person knowing. This means that relativism denies that there is any such thing as absolute, objective truth. This deceptive principle is expressed by saying what may be true for you is not necessarily true for someone else. As a result of the modernist denial of the possibility of absolute truth, Relativism, with its situational ethics, wrapped in its Humanistic cloak has become, in modern society, the guiding principle of pseudo-intellectual philosophy for the ungodly world as we know it. But thanks be to God Almighty, the Bible has consistently taught the same objective truth since Genesis was first penned down, and especially since its completion, the Bible has been a standard of sanity for almost 2000 years, and it remains to be the witness of the God who cannot lie and continues to state the norms, standards, and laws that were believed and taught by the 1st Century Christians. In other words, all of the contradictory and phony teachings of denominationalists and occults, have in no way changed the objective truth of the Word of God.

In plain language, it is the contention of the Christian Separatist Communion that for those men and women who will walk obediently in belief of the Word of God, it is our contention that the truth of God's Word can still be learned, that it is still knowable and attainable and enabling and that the Living God of the Bible is still very much in the separating and calling business of His people. Therefore, if men are to truly make peace with the Living God, it is self-evident from the Scripture that they are called to live by every word that proceeds out of the Mouth of God. The Apostle Paul emphatically states that we walk by faith or persuasion and not by sight (II Corinthians 5:17), and since the Bible declares that true persuasion comes by hearing and hearing by the Word of God (Romans 10:17), it is to be understood by all that when we do not have the witness and testimony from the Scriptures by having complied with the Christian law of proving all things, we cannot in truth be walking by persuasion. To say that a person walks by faith or persuasion is in effect to say that he or she lives a life of being willing to take God at His Word, that he or she is consciously seeking to follow the Spirit of Truth and to bring his or her thoughts and judgments in line and in harmony with the teachings of God's Word, for it is self-evident from the Scripture that the objective of the Christian persuasion is for all of God's people to be of one mind and one accord, to speak the same things and to achieve this standard of persuasion by bringing every thought into subjection to the Living and active Spirit of Truth.

The English word "faith" as used in God's Word the Bible is actually best translated as "persuasion." Popular religionists have made the word "faith" a euphemism in their misuse and misapplication of it. But in the Bible sense, and especially the New Testament sense, of the use of the Word, it is primarily indicative of a belief system of principles, norms, standards, and laws, that constitutes the Christian Government or Kingdom of God. Thus, true Bible faith can never be in contradiction of the teachings of Christ or His Holy Apostles.

Moreover, true persuasion cannot be set in opposition to a rational objective approach to the gaining of the absolute truth of Christian Scripture. In II Corinthians 5:7, we do note, however, that the true persuasion of Christ is contrasted with the words "walking by sight." Here, the phrase walking by sight is equivalent to the New Testament expression of being led by the flesh, and being led by the flesh is indicative of walking in the unregenerated, natural mind wherein people are led by their feelings, emotions, passions, and enthusiasms, as opposed to being led by the Spirit or the Mentality of God whose mind principles of moral and ethical behavior of thought and actions are recorded and written down in the Word of God.

In other words, to walk by sight is to go through life reacting to the Satanic world system, and doing so being led by carnal or human view point. This methodology of interacting with life is held in sharp contrast to what the Bible actually teaches. We are not to be led by our subjective reasoning, but we are to rather be led by the objective truth conveyed to us in the principles, norms, and standards of the New Covenant of the Living God. Moreover, we find that the truth of God's Word when approached and read objectively, teaches us in two primary ways. We are taught either explicitly or implicitly. In other words, when the Word of God emphatically states a principle in the language of men, it is to be taken as a statement of the will of the Living God. Men are not to argue or make excuse but are to understand that the explicit statements of God's Word are to be obeyed, adhered to without compromise. One example of God's explicit statements of principle is the fact that God emphatically states that no homosexual is to be allowed within the Christian Communion or Separated Society. This principle is emphatically stated in the clearest of language in the original Greek of God's Word and is correctly translated in the Anointed Standard Translation of the New Testament, and therefore stands as an irrefutable, indisputable principle of true Christian practice. On the other hand, other Greek words such as pornos and porneia are used in a general sense to engulf a large spectrum of other ungodly and immoral sexual practices. In other words, on one hand we have the word that means male homosexual, arsenkotoi, and it is an explicit Christian admonition against admission of homosexuals into Christian communions, but though the Greek Word literally means "sex with males," it also implies or covers the meaning by implication that no lesbian deviate behavior is to be sanctioned or tolerated by the Christian Church, and as I said before, lesbian behavior comes under the general category of that which the pimp or the prostitute, the porneia, sold as his or her sexual services. In plain language, this means that anyone such as the Methodist Church, many Pentecostal Churches, and the so-called "Gay" Churches or any so-called Church, that endorses homosexuality either through their sin of commission or their omission to stand on the emphatically stated principles of the Word of God, are in truth blasphemers. Not only do they not believe the explicit statements of Scripture, but in their arrogance, they have made an establishment of evil to call the God of the Bible a liar. Thus we see that when men deviate from the explicit statements of God's Word, they forfeit the understanding of the implicit or implied statements of God's Word. Nevertheless, the truth of God's Word stands firm and sure and becomes a witness against all deviates.

Thus, the Bible teaches that men are not to teach or preach any message other than the truth. Paul emphatically states that anyone who teaches or preaches a perverted gospel or good message thereby comes under the curse or the anathema of God (Galatians 1:6-9). This means that the Apostle understood and presupposes that there is a specific set and understandable good message that men are to know, that men can know, and that must not be deviated from. In other words, a specific belief system of principles and norms and standards. Moreover, the Apostle goes on to state and makes it unequivocally clear that those who teach any doctrine which is contrary to the doctrines which he preached are to be marked or noted and turned out and away from the Christian Communion or Christian Fellowship (Romans 16:17-18). But Paul is not the only witness in the Scripture of these principles. The Writer of the Apocalypse, popularly known as the Revelation, explicitly taught that those who add to or take away from the Word of God will suffer the wrath and punishment of Almighty God. Logic and history records the truth of this great Biblical principle. All the religious denominations and cult groups of men are to be seen either to the left or to the right of this Biblical principle of truth. The religious philosophies of men must always be categorized and understood in light of whether they have added to the Word of God or taken away from the Word of God, for either action is to leave the Word of God and constitutes the rejection of the Word of God.

Thus, we see that truth can be learned and we know this to be so, for we know that our Heavenly Father would not require that which is not possible of His children, and since our eternal salvation is conditional upon knowing the truth, then we are constrained to believe that God our Father has indeed made it possible for us to come to a saving knowledge of truth. The writer of Jude explicitly and clearly states that godly men must defend and uphold the truth by repudiating lies and Satanic propaganda. In other words, Jude makes it clear that the way the truth is upheld is by standing in opposition to error (Jude 3; Philippians 1:16-17; I Peter 3:15). It is therefore obvious to any reasonable mind that men must be able to learn the truth in order to defend the truth. Men must be enabled to learn the truth in order to preach the true gospel. Thus, the Bible makes it clear that men are required to learn the good message of the truth. Moreover, we see these principles of Scripture further exemplified in the fact that true Christians are required to support those who faithfully preach the good message of Christ. In I Corinthians 9:14, the Apostle Paul said,

"So also the Master ordained of those announcing the good message, to live from the good message" (AST).

In plain language, this means that Paul is saying that those who are required to do the supporting must be able to know who is really preaching the true good message of Christ. As we have said before, Paul makes it clear that preachers of any other good message are to be opposed and not supported (Galatians 1:6-9, Romans 16:17-19; II John 9-11; I John 4:1-2).

Moreover, we as the children of the Living God are not to believe every teacher that comes along to breathe upon us, but we are to put each and every teacher to the test to see if the doctrine that he is teaching is really in line and harmony with the actual Word of God. We are to test those men who claim the gift of preaching by the Word of God to see if the ones proclaiming are actually living by and of the Gospel they claim to be preaching. This imposes an individual responsibility upon every child of God to take responsibility for their own priesthood by knowing what the Word of God or the Good Message of the Christian Government actually teaches. This, in itself, is proof that the Good Message of Christ is a knowable, definable, belief system with set boundaries of teaching. We are therefore warned against allowing any preacher or teacher to mislead us away from the truth of the Scripture into accepting a false teaching or doctrine (II Peter 2:1-2). Moreover, the Book of Revelation commends those who put false apostles to the test and find them to be false. Therefore, we find that Christians must support, financially and otherwise, those who preach the truth and oppose those preachers and denominations that seek to make an establishment of evil by presenting another gospel or false good message. To walk in obedience to this

Christian principle and command, it should be obvious that Christians must be able to learn and to know the objective truth of Scripture.

Therefore, the Christian persuasion teaches that it is not only possible to distinguish between truth and error but that it is the profound duty of every priestly member who enjoys citizenship in the Government of Christ to be about his Father's business of discriminating between that which is true and false by the standard of God's Word. By this methodology only are the children of God to judge messengers.

"Do you not know that we will judge messengers, not to speak of this life?" (I Corinthians 6:3-AST).

Often we hear Judeo Christians who have capitulated and surrendered their citizenship to antichrist philosophies, misquote God's Word by taking it out of context and to thereby deceitfully use the Word of God to make excuse for their immaturity and avoidance of Christian responsibility as stewards of the Christian Government, by stating as a tenet of their perverted theology that the Bible says not to judge. Then they go on to claim that, after all, everyone is but a saved sinner. But nothing could be further from the truth. If a man remains a sinner after having received the blood of Christ, then he is a back-slider and not a citizen of Heaven. There are no sinners in the Government of Heaven. To make such a claim as an excuse to avoid Christian responsibility to walk worthily of Christ is to trodden under foot and belittle and minimize the very Blood of Christ that the Judeo claims he has received. For the Bible says that if a man is a knowing and willful sinner and yet claims to be in the Government of God, he is a liar and the truth is not in him.

When the Bible speaks in warning against and cautioning against unfair and unjust judgments, it is by no means telling the Christian citizen that he is not to make judgments.

> "Judge not and in no way will you be judged. Do not condemn and in no way will you be condemned (Luke 6:37-AST).

This Scriptural principle, in truth, is a prohibitation of personal judgments and condemnations not sanctioned by the Word of the Living God. It is a warning against a person taking upon themselves the authority of God and thereby usurping God's throne. But it does not teach that Christians are not to make discriminatory judgments, for it would be impossible to fulfill this principle if the Christian was obeying the Word of God and seeking to be governed and ruled by the Word of God that we call the Old and New Testament. Far too many have failed to understand that repeating the judgments of our Heavenly Father is to be done objectively and free of personal opinions and prejudices. The Bible is the Constitution of the Government of God. In it, God has decreed what is right and what is wrong, what is sane and what is insane. God Almighty our Father has made all judgments, and we as Separatist Christians believe that all of His judgments are righteous and true. Moreover, God the Father has committed the authority of Just Judgment to Jesus Christ. The Christian's duty is to adjust himself to the righteous and just judgments of the Word of God and then to live by them.

Thus, Bible Christianity, in truth, is objective and is not to be practiced in the subjective philosophies of the minds of men. To repeat the Judgment of God is the duty of the Christian. To declare what God has decreed to be just and true is not an act of subjective, willful judgment and condemnation on the part of the Christian, but is rather his duty in walking worthy of the favor and justice of God. To do so, the Christian must consciously seek, to follow every admonishment of the Christian Government, and to willfully desire to be of the One Mind and One Accord of the true Christian Government, speaking the same things, continuing and walking in the Word of Truth. It is obvious that in order for a Christian to walk as a witness of the Just Judgments of God, then the Good Message and belief system of the Christian Government must be understandable, learnable, knowable, and enabling. It is also clear that to walk worthy of the Blood of Christ in accordance with the teachings of that Government, the truly regenerated Christian must be seeking to take responsibility for obtaining the saving knowledge of truth. Therefore, we are told in the Book of Luke that the Bereans were more noble than they of Thessalonika, and we are told that the reason for this characterization of nobility is that they searched the Scriptures to see if what was taught was actually true (Acts 17:11). These faithful Bereans had apprehended the reality of the Christian principle that Christians are duty bound to prove all things and hold fast to that which is good (I Thess. 5:21). The Bereans did not believe that it was impossible for men to discriminate between truth and error, nor would these noble early Christians subscribe to that antichrist philosophy of unbiblical and muddled thinking that attacks the integrity of God by implying that God is somehow laid upon the Christian citizen the impossible task of knowing the unknowable.

The Bible is a constant witness that it is not impossible to know the Will of God. This fact is again seen in the fact that Priscilla and Aquilla were able to teach Apollos that he was teaching false doctrine. This fact is further testified to by the fact that Apollos repented and came to learn the truth (Acts 18:26-28). For those who will actually read the Bible and take it as their standard of rule and persuasion, it becomes clear that not only is it possible to discriminate between good and evil and truth and error but it is the duty of every citizen of the Government of Christ to police their Separated Society by walking worthy of Christ in defense of the governmental truths of righteousness that constitute the very Government of God on Earth. It should be obvious to the reader that the persuasion, that is the principles that constitutes the Christian Government, are definable and learnable and that the Christian Government is constituted by those teachings, doctrines, and principles that are sanctioned by the New Covenant of the Lord Jesus Christ. More than this, the Word of God sets boundaries and limitations to the principles of the Government and forbids adding to or taking away from them.

When men violate the Word of God through seeking to impose Syncretic religious philosophies or personal subjective opinions, they immediately manifest themselves as non-believers. Thus, the Word of God, which is the constitution of the Christian State, has always taught that true inspiration comes only from the source of inspiration and is always conveyed by teaching. Christ came to call students or disciples whom he specifically taught over a three year period to be those ambassadors of the Government of Heaven. Even the dynamic Apostle Paul was taught by a just man the principles of Christian Government and Paul further retreated into the wilderness to receive further instruction, through study and meditation, of Christian principles. Thus, the Christian persuasion and the inspiration which it delivers to those who believe is always conveyed from persuasion to persuasion, from believer to believer. In other words, this principle of Christian Government is declarative of the fact that true persuasion must be obtained only from those who actually believe the Word of God. This fact of Biblical principle focuses clearly upon the reason behind the modern dilemma that modern manifestations of pagan and Talmudic Jewish philosophy poses for the survival of the Christian state. The Word of God clearly teaches that those who do not believe the good message of the Governmental principles of Jesus Christ will be damned (II Thess. 2:10-13).

The Christian persuasion declares that those of the sons of Adam who do not believe through obedience and trust the truth that Almighty God has declared of his own existence and salvation cannot and will not be saved (Hebrews 11:6). The Bible further declares that those who do not believe the truth about Jesus Christ will die in their failure (John 8:24) and will be lost forever (Romans 6:23).

Thus, we see that not only can men know and obey the truth, but that in order for men to experience the salvation and preservation of Almighty God, they must obey the truth. For Jesus Christ is a Savior only of those who obey Him (Heb. 5:8-9). Those who deny the truth of the Scripture and seek to make excuses to soothe their consciences and those who aid and abet the enemies of God in the destruction of the eternal Christian state, constituted and paid for by the precious blood of Jesus Christ, are judged by the Word of God to be damned and if they remain unrepented and continue through disobedience to trod under foot the Government of the New Covenant of Jesus Christ, they will be eternally damned for their disobedience (John 3:36, II Thes. 1:7-9). The Bible teaches that the disobedient will be damned and that only the obedient will be saved. It further becomes clear that one cannot be saved without truly loving the Living God (I Cor. 16:22), and to love the Lord our God is to obey Him (John 14:15; I John 5:3), for Jesus has said, "If you love me, keep my commandments." In plain language, this means that true Christian love is walking and abiding, continuing and holding fast, keeping the commandments without spot and reproach. Jesus said, "If you continue in My Word, you are truly My students. And you will know the truth, and truth will set you free." (John 8:32).

This has been the standard of true Christian loyalty and true Christian fellowship from the very beginning of the Christian state. That which this principle implicitly teaches is that in order to fulfill this Christian norm and standard, the Christian must be able to learn exactly what the Word of God teaches. It is self evident that it would be virtually impossible to abide in the Word of God unless we could first learn it. By Christ saying that you will know the truth, Jesus Christ taught by implication that we can indeed learn the truth. In addition to this, by Christ saying, "truth will set you free," Jesus Christ has made it clear that truth is not merely a goal to be sought after or some fleeting, unattainable quest that continually recedes before us so that we can never really learn the truth, as is taught by the Judaizing theologians, but rather that the truth is not only attainable and knowable, but the knowledge of truth is the very means of being made free from the failure of sin. The Apostle Paul condemned those who were "always learning and never able to come to a full knowledge of truth" (II Tim. 3:7-AST). The writer of Hebrews taught that a fearful expectation of the judgmental wrath of God awaits those who "sin willfully" after having received the knowledge of the truth (Heb. 10:26). The Apostle Peter emphatically states,

> "For if they have escaped the mongrelization of this world by a full knowledge of [our] Master and Savior, Jesus Anointed, and again being entangled, they have been overcome by these, then the last things are worse than the first," (II Pet. 2:20-AST).

Peter clearly teaches that there were some who had escaped the mongrelization of the world (Satanic world order), that is by the knowledge of the truth of the Government of Christ, they had been saved from their failure. Peter therefore makes it clear that it is not only possible that some can learn the truth, but that some did actually learn and have the truth. John declares,

> "I did not write to you because you do not know the truth, but because you know it, and because every lie is not of the truth" (I John 2:21-AST).

The primary principle made clear in this passage is that among the early Christians there were many who emphatically knew the truth. It also declares that that which is false has nothing in common with that which is true.

Thus, the Bible continually teaches, implicitly and explicitly, that the Word of God is the only constitution for the Christian State of Christ. Moreover, the Bible clearly teaches in the plainest of language that those who become citizens of the Government of God through the Favor of God given to us by the sacrificial blood of Jesus Christ do not become citizens of a Communist welfare state but must become citizens taking their responsibility to walk worthily of Christ according to the dictates, admonitions, norms, standards, and laws of the Christian contract or Covenant. In plain language, there are no citizens who may claim the freedom of Christ without claiming the responsibility of being a Christian citizen. That responsibility of Christian stewardship is predicated upon the word "belief," for to believe God and take Him at His Word is to obey Him. Thus, those who will not and do not walk in obedience to the New Covenant constitution of the Government of God and the Christian State are termed non-believers and failures because they have failed to adjust themselves to the Just and Righteous Judgments of the Living God. Moreover, the Bible makes it clear that it is the Christian's responsibility to defend the Constitution of His Government, which is the Word of God and the truth of that Government which does and has provided his or her freedom.

The citizen of the Christian State is told of Christian writ to hold fast the pattern of sound words "I announced to you" (I Cor. 15:2 AST). They are told to hold fast to the faithful word which is according to the teaching (Titus 1:9 AST). They are commanded to prove all things, and to hold fast to that which is good (I Thess. 5:21AST), "by which," in reference to the Christian Governmental Constitution of the New Covenant, "you are also saved if you hold fast to the word which I preached unto you." The citizens of the Christian State are commanded to speak the same thing (I Cor. 1:10).

> "Now I exhort you, brothers, through the authority of our Master, Jesus Anointed, that you all say the same thing, and have no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and in the same judgment." (AST).

The Separated citizens are explicitly told,

> "And everything, whatever you do in word or in action, do all things in the authority of the Master Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him" (Col. 3:17-AST).

This Scripture makes it plain that the Christian citizen is to adhere to the Christian Constitution. In this principle, we are taught God Almighty's perfect plan for the religious unity of the Christian citizen. We are taught that it is the will of God that all men teach and practice only what is authorized by the Christian Constitution of Revelation. Paul conveys to us the Mentality of God when he taught that if men would all teach the same thing, there would be no divisions among them. Through the authority of Christ, Paul forbids men to teach any other thing except the very same things that men heard him teach by divine authority. It is clear that he commends men when they recognized that authority and accepted the good message of the Constitutional Government of Christ, not, as he says, "not as the word of men, but as it truly is, a Word of God" (I Thess. 2:13-AST). The Mentality of God explicitly warns, "those despising despise not man, but God, the One also giving His Mentality of Separation to you" (I Thess. 4:8; cf. Gal. 1:8-9). These things are true because the things that are written are the commandments of the Lord (I Cor. 14:37; cf. II Tim. 3:16-7, II Pet. 1:9-21).

Thus, the Bible teaches that the Christian citizen is authorized to do and teach only those things for which they have Biblical authority. Everything is to be done in the name of, that is, authority of, the Lord Jesus Christ (Col. 3:17). We must have Biblical authority, and without it, we are transgressing (II John 9). God charges the citizens of the Christian State not to teach anything which is different from sound gospel teaching, or to add to the Word of God by going past it. (I Tim. 1:3, 10-11; I Cor. 4:6). We are assured that true Christian unity is a clear and present possibility for all those who will submit themselves to one another within the Governmental framework of the Christian constitution that we know as the Word of God, and we know that it is the Will of God that all Christian citizens be united into the one Anointed Nation, for this was and is the Will of our Lord and Master (John 17:20-21; Eph. 4:3-6). We are taught that each individual believer must receive the engrafting of the Living Word within their minds and hearts which only and alone is able to save the bodily souls of the Christian State (Jacob 1:21).

As Christian Separatists we believe, according to the Scriptures, that Christ Jesus is God Almighty's appointed Savior. He is the Appointed leader of the Aryan race. His leadership is beyond the corruption of this world. His government is beyond the corruption of men. Thus we believe it is required of each man in order to be obedient to the Living God and to cease from making war with the Living God, that each man is required to accept Jesus Christ as his only Savior and Leader. For only then, and only by that means, can men be restored to the intellectual integrity and honor that can only come from the Father of Lights up above.

Thus, we believe that the Bible requires that men believe Jesus. By this we mean that there is a very great difference in believing on Jesus or believing in Jesus, than believing Jesus. It is one thing to believe that Jesus Christ existed. It is another to believe that perhaps He was a good man or even one of the sons of God. It is quite a different thing to believe that he was God in the flesh, not merely just a good man or even a prophet, but rather God in the flesh communicating with His people. For if this is true as the Scriptures give witness then that means that He is worthy of worship, adoration and devotion and is demanding of our obedience and loyalty. By this definition to truly believe in Jesus is to believe the words and teachings of Jesus. This cannot be done with mere mental ascent or by practicing a vague religious tradition with no basis in the principles and teachings of the Scripture. Thus the real Jesus of the Scripture laid down the principle that those who truly love him keep His commandments. In I Timothy 6:14 the Christian is commanded to keep the commandments without spot and without reproach. Each of the inspired students of Christ voiced the same principal. For John records in I John 2:3-5 (AST)

> "And by this we know if we have known Him, if we keep His commands. The one saying, 'I have known Him,' and not keeping his commands is a liar, and the truth is not in that one. But whoever keeps his Word, [in reference to all the inspired Christian writings] truly, in this one, the honorable brotherly love of God has been perfected. By this we know that we are in Him."

Continue

In Acts 2:42 we read these words,

> "And they were continuing steadfastly in the teaching of the Ambassadors, and in the fellowship, and in the breaking of the bread, and in the prayers."

This teaches clearly that the Apostolic Church based citizenship and fellowship in the communion of the body politic of Christ on the principle of steadfastly continuing in the teachings of Christ and the apostles. The Word steadfastly denotes the idea of tenaciously adhering to, without deviating from. This kind of devoted loyalty had long been a standard of fellowship in the true Israel of God. In Joshua 1:7 we see that the church of old adhered to the same principle in that once they were upon the path of salvation they did not turn from it to the right hand, or to the left.

The apostles' teachings were as binding as those of Christ and Paul declared that they were, in reality, the word of the Living God. Thus, the New Covenant of Christ makes it clear that men who claim the title of Christian have only the right to teach and practice that which is written. The path of salvation that God the Father has prepared for those who love and believe in Him has thoroughly furnished the children of God to all the good works of their Father. Moreover, the principle of steadfastly continuing in the teachings of Christ and the Apostles is a common sense principle. By implication the principle teaches that God the Father has provided all that is necessary for the salvation and preservation of the Children of Adam within the pages of His revealed mind written in His Word. Thus the Word of God in its true autographs and in a true translation thereof, is the only authoritative standard for right Christian thinking and right Christian action.

Walk

In first John 1:5-7, the Word of the Living God who cannot lie declares,

> "And this is the message which we have heard from Him, and we announce to you, that God is light, and darkness is not in Him, none. If we say that we have fellowship with Him, and we walk in darkness, we lie, and are not doing the truth. But if we walk in the light, we > have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Anointed, His Son, purifies us from all failure." (AST)

Here the term walk is used in reference to the way people live and in reference to the life philosophy by which they live and walk. This Scripture declares the principle that the real believer is obligated to walk in the light as God is in the light. The term light is a synonymous term with truth. For Jesus has declared that he is the way, the truth, and the life and that no man can come unto the Father but by Him. To have the light of truth is to be enlightened to truth, but this Christian principle demands that the true believer walk in the light of the truth. Moreover, this same Scripture teaches that the Children of God are limited as to where they may walk or fellowship. For they are expressly told to walk in the light. And since absolute truth may only be found in God's word, God's Word has always been understood to be the light that illuminates the path of salvation, Psalms 119:105. II Corinthian 4:4-6 the true Christian is to walk in the truth. (James 4, III John 3:4, John 17:17).

The citizen of the Christian state is commanded to walk after the commandments of God, II John 6, and he is to do so by walking by faith (II Corinthians 5:7). All the citizens of Christ's government must walk by the same rule and order (Philippians 3:16, Galatians 6:16). And this is especially true, when it comes to Christian teachings, all Christians are obligated when it comes to doctrinal teachings to speak the same things (I Corinthians 1:10) The New Covenant fellowship of the Separated Ones is, therefore, founded upon a faithful walk in the light of God's Will and the word of God makes no exceptions for those who desire to walk disorderly (II Thessalonians 3:6). It is therefore clear that when it comes to the word of the Living God, contrary to the Satanic teaching of the evil world order, men do not have the right to disagree with God, to teach contrary to God's Word, or to hold religious or philosophical opinions that contradict the principles of truth. Men are obligated to walk in all the ways of God our Father (Joshua 22:5) and to live their lives by every word that has proceeded out of the mouth of God.

Abide

Moreover the Bible expressly states in II John 9, "Everyone transgressing and not abiding in the teaching of the Anointed does not have God. The one abiding in the teaching, this one has the Father and the Son." (AST)This principle of the Word of God states clearly the only true basis for actual Christian believers' fellowship. It declares in unmistakable clarity of language that true Christian unity is defined in God's Word as abiding in the doctrines of Jesus Christ. The doctrines of Jesus Christ are inclusive of all that Christ taught, and all that those chosen students, whom He taught, set down as teachings. In addition to this Christ expressly says, "If you continue in My Word, you are truly my students." (John 8:31 AST). These Scriptures teach the principle that true brotherhood and unity may only be achieved when men are willing to be governed by the Word of God and walk by the discipline of abiding in the teachings of the contractual covenant of Christ. Moreover, Christ Himself declares that abiding in God's Word is the only path to becoming and being a true disciple or student of the Master, Jesus Christ.

Follow

In I Timothy 4:6 (AST) Paul advises Timothy,

> "Having suggested these things to the brothers, you will be a good minister of Jesus Anointed. Being nourished by the words of the persuasion and by the good teachings which you have followed."

> "But you have closely followed my teaching, the conduct, the plan, the persuasion, the long-suffering, the honorable brotherly love, the patience" (II Timothy 3:10-AST).

> "For whores, for homosexuals, for man-traders, for liars, for perjurers, and if any other thing opposes sound teaching" (I Timothy 1:10-AST).

Only as men follow the good teachings can it be said that they are following Christ. False teachers who bring in damnable heresies and those who follow their pernicious ways, (II Peter 2:1-2) God Almighty will not spare (II Peter 2:3-9, Galatians 1:8-9). Those who taught and preached the good message at the time of the Apostles did not follow cunningly devised fables (II Peter 1:16). Men are therefore without excuse, who knowingly and willfully follow blind religious leaders because Jesus taught that both would end up in the ditch (Matthew 15:14). The Bible teaches that false teachings that contradict Scripture damn men, but the truth of the Scripture, when faithfully followed, will save men (Jacob 1:21, Roman 1:16, I Corinthian 15:1-2, II Thessalonians 2:10). All called of the true God of the Bible have the obligation to make their calling and choosing sure. Each has the obligation to have studied unto the approval of God and to be sure by the proof of the Scripture, that they understand and know what they are talking about before they ever instruct others. Otherwise, they are to let their conversation be Yea and Nay to avoid the damnation of false witnesses and perjurers. Moreover, the standard of true Christian fellowship is further witnessed by the Scripture in I Timothy 6:14, Christians are explicitly told to keep the commandments spotless, without reproach until the appearing of our Master Jesus Anointed. I John 2:3-5, "And by this we know if we have known Him, if we keep His commands. The one saying, 'I have known Him,' and not keeping His commands is a liar, and the truth is not in that one. But whoever keeps His Word, truly, in this one, the honorable brotherly love of God has been perfected. By this we know that we are in Him" (AST). "For this is the honorable brotherly love God, that we keep His commandments..." (I John 5:3 AST). Here the Bible teaches clearly that true Christian fellowship and true communion with God the Father is clearly based upon the principle of walking in obedience to the commandments and the Word of Jesus Christ.

Holdfast

In II Timothy 1:13 the Christian citizen is told to holdfast to the pattern of sound words which thou hast heard from me. In Titus 1:9 we are told, "clinging to the word according to the teaching of the persuasion, the he may be able both to require by the sound teaching, and convict those contradicting" (AST). In I Thessalonians 5:21 the Christian is commanded to prove all things and holdfast to that which is good. In I Corinthians 15:2 we are told by which [in reference to the good message] also you are saved if you holdfast the word which I have preached unto you. All these Scripture serve to pin-point the exact cause for the moral degeneration of western societies. Men have disobeyed the Living God and have not heldfast to the true and actual teachings of the Word of God. Instead they have deviated from the Word of God to ignore its standards of truth and they have invented false religious philosophies that have resulted in false political philosophies and thereby brought the sons of Adam to the very brink of extinction and annihilation. To hold subjective philosophies that are in blatant disagreement with the Word of the Living God is to call God a liar. To call God a liar is to be the enemy of God. Thus Christian unity must be built upon the teachings of the Scripture, each citizen of God's government must submit themselves to the pattern and order of the Scripture (I Timothy 1:11; 6:3)

Speak The Same Things And Be Of The Same Mind

In I Corinthians 1:10 the Christian citizen is told,

"Now I exhort you, brothers, through the authority of our Master, Jesus Anointed, that you all say the same thing, and have no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and in the same judgment" (AST).

"And what things you heard from me through many witnesses, these things commit to men of persuasion, who will be competent also to teach others" (II Timothy 2:2 AST).

"And everything, whatever you do in word or in action, do all things in the authority of the Master Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him" (Colossians 3:17 AST).

"As I begged you to remain in Ephesus - me going into Macedonia - that you might charge certain ones not to teach other teachings, nor to attend to fables and to endless genealogies, which provide doubts rather than a stewardship of God in persuasion, but the end of the commandment is honorable brotherly love, out of a racially pure heart, and a good conscience and unpretended persuasion, which, some missing the mark, turned aside to empty talking, wanting to be teachers of law, understanding neither what they say nor what things they strongly affirm about" (I Timothy 1:3-7 AST).

These Scriptures serve to illustrate and to emphatically declare that those men who will be Christ's must not deviate from the Scriptures or teach anything unauthorized by the Scriptures. Men must have Biblical authority for their persuasion and practice (II John 9). So long as men are willing to be of one mind and one accord, to abide and walk in and to hold steadfast to that which is taught in the original autographs of the Scriptures of the first century, then there will be no disagreement among brothers and the power of God's Word will be allowed and able to have its perfect effect. This then is the Biblical standard for fellowship, Brotherhood, and unity of those separated unto the Government of the Living God.

It is quite incredible when we truly understand the realities of the time in which we live. Most men, yes, even those who profess to be preachers, have never in their whole lives read the true Word of God. Yet, hundreds of thousands of so-called Christian denominations are built upon the farce of the King James Version. Theoretical theology, that is to say, the theology of the Judeo theologians, exists only in the vacuum of ignorance that the Talmudic Jews have created. The Balaam Grahams and Core Falwells of this world, and the Pat "love thy nigger" Robertsons, have become the media super-salesmen for Jewish theology. The Bible says that such men have been mongrelized in their mind.

The Bible also teaches that the way that we know that men have been mongrelized in their mind is by what they teach that is in opposition to what the Word of God actually and really teaches. Today, at this hour in history, the White race is being murdered through mongrelization, and the prophets of Baal are encouraging the genocide of the White race. This seems almost incomprehensible when less than two generations ago, Americans were conscious of their distinct racial endowments by Almighty God and had laws standing on the books of their nation to safeguard and protect their posterity from the evil of mongrelization. What has happened is very easy to explain if we will believe the truth of history and the heritage of true Bible scholarship. We have been sold into the slavery of Satan by our politicians and preachers. We are now the victims of a Jewish, Talmudic conspiracy reaching all the way back through history even to the time of Jesus Christ. There are good and decent men who may well agree with much of what I have had to say about God's wonderful Word the Bible, except when it comes to racial understanding of what we call the New Testament.

Many of these good men shrivel like cowards, acting in fear of the Jews and in fear of popular opinion, acting to defend the blatantly Jewish, conspiratorial lies that have stolen the truth of the Word of God from the American White Man. They cringe like little cowards, intellectually lying to themselves and to those who have faith in them, and rather than being led by the Spirit of Truth, they seek to fight the Holy Spirit of God by seeking to maintain the present evil establishment. And so they defend "Queen" James and all those Jewish manipulated translations that are based upon the whims of Jewish publishers. But such men need to understand that the truth of God's Word is not going away. God has moved and has spoken in this generation, and the sanity and truth of Christian Separatism will either be a witness for Israel or against the true Israel of God. When people come to those who have set themselves up as religious authorities even though they have never really read the Word of God and do not know what they are talking about, they act as Jew agents doing the bidding of their mongrel masters and they perpetuate the lies that are easily disproved with very little research by our own commonly accepted Greek Scholars. And so the house of God is perpetually divided on the issue of the racial truth of God's Word, and because men do not know what the Word of God really says or do not have the gumption to find out, our people are killed all the day long like sheep to the slaughter.

The New Testament of the Lord Jesus Christ is the Mind of God speaking to His Chosen Family. It is the book of the race of Adam and it was not written for anyone else. The Bible says to test all things (I Thess. 5:21) and this implies that those who cannot prove what they are saying need to shut their sewer mouths and get out of God's Way. God is sick to His stomach of men playing religion and using the phony translations of His Word as an excuse to live godless lives and to be intellectual cowards. God is sick of White men creating subjective philosophies and blaspheming His Word and the teachings of Christ through this Jewish-given inalienable right that men think that they have where they in their arrogance take it upon themselves to disagree with the Word of God.

No one on the face of this planet has the right to disagree with the Word of God. To disagree with the Word of God is to call God a liar. To deny any truth of the Word of God is to call God a liar and therefore to blaspheme the Almighty Lord God Eternal. With that in mind let us flip through the Anointed Standard Translation of the New Testament which is a literal translation from the original Greek as penned down by the Apostles in the first century, and let us see with our own eyes in a truthful translation what the Word of God has to say about race and racial consciousness. In the Book of Jacob, commonly known as James (which of course is not the true name of the book), we read these verses:

> "But if any of you lack wisdom, let him ask from God Who gives to all who are racially pure and not dishonorable, and it will be given to him." (Jacob 1:5-AST)

> "Religion purified and of the unmongrelized before God and the Father is this: to visit the orphans and widows in their affliction, keeping himself unspotted from the world." (Jacob 1:27-AST).

> "For He who said, 'You will not mongrelize,' also said, 'You will not murder.' But if you do not mongrelize, but commit murder, you have become a transgressor of the law." (Jacob 2:11-AST)

> "Oh female mongrelizers! Do you not know that the love the world is enmity with God? Whoever then purposes to be a lover of the world is established to be an enemy of God." (Jacob 4:4-AST)

Let us continue to look through more of the New Testament of the Living God and pick at random a number of pertinent verses that have some explicit statements on the New Testament teaching of race and racial purity. I therefore list for the convenience of the reader the following Scriptures without commentary, inasmuch as the Bible says what it means and means what it says.

"So let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, not with leaven of low birth and of evil but with unleavened of racial purity and truth according to nature." (I Corinthians 5:8-AST)

"Or do you not know that the unjust ones will not inherit the government of God? Do not be led astray, neither prostitutes, nor idolaters, nor mongrelizers, nor effeminates, nor homosexuals, nor thieves, nor greedy persons, nor drunks, nor revelers, nor robbers will inherit the government of God." (I Corinthians 6:9-10-AST)

"But the knowledge is not in all: for some being accustomed to the idol eat as an idolatrous sacrifice until now; and their conscious, being weak, is mongrelized." (I Corinthians 8:7-AST)

"But everyone striving controls himself in all things. Then those truly that they may receive a mongrelizable crown, but we, an unmongrelizable." (I Corinthians 9:25-AST)

"So also the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in mongrelization, it is raised in nonmongrelization;" (I Corinthians 15:42-AST).

"And this I say, brothers, that flesh and blood is not able to inherit the government of God, nor mongrelization inherit nonmongrelization. Behold, I tell a mystery to you: indeed we shall not all fall asleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in a glance of an eye, at the last trumpet, for a trumpet will sound and the dead will be raised unmongrelizable, and we shall be changed. For this mongrelizable must put on unmongrelizable, and this mortal put on immortality. And when this mongrelizable shall put on unmongrelizableness, and mortal put on this immortality, then the word having been written will occur, "Death was swallowed up in victory." (I Corinthians 15:50-54-AST)

"To Timothy, a racially pure child in the persuasion, Favor, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Jesus Anointed our Master." (I Timothy 1:2-AST)

"But the end of the commandment is honorable brotherly love, out of a racially pure heart, and a good conscience and unpretended persuasion." (I Timothy 1:5-AST)

"Now to the King of the Ages, unmongrelizable, invisible, the only God, be honor and reputation forever and ever. So be it." (I Timothy 1:17-AST)

"Holding the mystery of the persuasion with a racially pure conscience." (I Timothy 3:9-AST)

"Meddling,of men whose mind has been mongrelized and deprived of the truth, supposing gain to be godliness." (I Timothy 6:5-AST)

"For our boasting is this, the testimony of our conscience, that we behaved in the world in separation and godly racial purity, not in fleshly wisdom, but in the favor of God, and more abundantly toward you." (II Corinthians 1:12-AST)

"For we are not as many, who adulterate the Word of God, but as of racial purity, but as of God, we speak in the Anointed in the sight of God." (II Corinthians 2:17-AST)

"Do not through birthing become unequally yoked with those of a different race or with those without persuasion. For what communion does the law abiding have with law-breakers? And what sexual intercourse does light have with darkness?" (II Corinthians 6:14-AST)

"'Because of this, come out from among them, and separate, mark off your boundaries and cast them out of your society, and do not have sexual intercourse with an adulterated mongrel, and I will receive you.'" (II Corinthians 6:17-AST)

"Then having these promises, beloved, let us purify ourselves from all mongrelization of flesh and of mentality, fulfilling separation in the fear of God. Make room for us. We did injustice to no one, we mongrelized no one, we defrauded no one." (II Corinthians 7:1-2-AST)

"That in much testing of trouble, the overflowing of their joy and the depth of their poverty abounded to the riches of their racial purity." (II Corinthians 8:2-AST)

"I do not speak according to command but through the earnestness of others, and to show as good the love of racial purity." (II Corinthians 8:8-AST)

"In everything, all the racially pure are being enriched, which works out thanksgiving to God through us." (II Corinthians 9:11-AST)

"Through the proof of this service, they repute God by your freely expressed submission to the good message of the Anointed, and the racial purity of your fellowship, toward them and all." (II Corinthians 9:13-AST)

"But I fear, lest somehow as the serpent seduced Eve, in his craftiness, so your thoughts should be mongrelized away from the racial purity ⌊and the separation⌋ of the Anointed." (II Corinthians 11:3-AST)

"Now the actions of the flesh are clearly revealed, which are: Mongrelization, whoredom, impurity, raping." (Galatians 5:19-AST)

"Because he sowing to his flesh will reap mongrelization; but he sowing to the Mentality will reap everlasting life." (Galatians 6:8-AST)

"And changed the reputation of the unmongrelizable God into a likeness of an image of a mongrelized man, and of birds, and four-footed animals, and reptiles. Because of this, God gave them up to mongrelization in the lusts of their hearts, their bodies to be dishonored among themselves." (Romans 1:23-24-AST)

"Life everlasting to those who with patience work good seeking reputation and honor and nonmongrelization." (Romans 2:7-AST)

"He saying not to mongrelize, do you mongrelize? The one detesting idols, do you rob the temple?" (Romans 2:22-AST)

"That also the creation will be freed from the slavery of mongrelization, to the freedom of the reputation of the children of God." (Romans 8:21-AST)

"For, 'You will not mongrelize; You will not murder; You will not steal; ⌊You will not lie;⌋ You will not lust;' and if there is any other commandment, it is summed up in these words, 'You will love your neighbor as yourself.'" (Romans 13:9-AST)

"For such ones do not serve the Master, Jesus Anointed, but their bellies, and through smooth speech and flattering, they deceive the hearts of the racially pure." (Romans 16:18-AST)

"To Titus, a racially pure child according to the common persuasion, Favor and peace, from God the Father and the Master Jesus the Anointed, our Savior." (Titus 1:4-AST)

"In every way in fact are the nonmongrelized, nonmongrelized, but to the ones having been mongrelized and having no persuasion, nothing is nonmongrelized, but even their mind and conscience has been mongrelized." (Titus 1:15-AST)

"Having shown concerning themselves a pattern of good actions concerning all things, in the teachings, in racial purity, self-respecting, incorruptible." (Titus 2:7-AST)

"For you to test, examine, and distinguish between the differing, inferior man, that you may be racially pure and void of offence for the day of the Anointed." (Philippians 1:10-AST)

"Parent all children separate from murmerers and disputers, in order that they may be born perfect in our kind: pure blooded and nonmongrelized, faultless children of God, admist a race perverse, and having been corrupted, among whom we appear like luminaries in the orderly arrangement." (Philippians 2:14-15-AST)

"For I have no one of equal mind, who in racial consciousness will care for the things about you." (Philippians 2:20-AST)

"And I also ask you, racially pure yokefellows, assist them, who in the good message struggle with me, and with Clement, and the rest, fellow-workers with me, whose names are in the Book of Life." (Philippians 4:3-AST)

"Do not touch, nor taste, nor handle, those things which are all for mongrelization in the using to the full, according to the precepts and teachings of men." (Colossians 2:21-22-AST)

"Favor be with all those that love our Master Jesus the Anointed in nonmongrelizableness." (Ephesians 6:24-AST)

"Thanks I have to God, whom I worship from my racial ancestors in a racially pure conscience, how unceasingly I have remembrance concerning you in my petitions night and day." (II Timothy 1:3-AST)

"But now through the appearance of our Savior, Jesus the Anointed making death of no effect and bring to light life and racial purity through the good message." (II Timothy 1:10-AST)

"Also, flee youthful lusts, and pursue justice, persuasion, honorable brotherly love, peace, with those calling on the Master out of a racially pure heart." (II Timothy 2:22-AST)

"But in the way Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses, so also these oppose the truth, men having been mongrelized in mind, unapproved concerning the persuasion." (II Timothy 3:8-AST)

"And a man with a mongreled mentality was in the synagogue; and he cried out." (Mark 1:23-AST).

"For from within, out of the heart of men, the thoughts of evil pass out: mongrelization, whoredom, murders, thefts, greediness, iniquities, deceit, lust, a wicked eye, blasphemy, haughtiness, foolishness." (Mark 7:21-22-AST)

"For whoever may be ashamed of Me and My words admist this failing and mongrel race, the Son of man will also be ashamed of him when He comes in the reputation of His Father with the Separated Messengers." (Mark 8:38-AST)

"You know the commandments: 'Mongrelize not, murder not, steal not, lie not, defraud not, honor your father and mother.'" (Mark 10:19-AST)

"The book of the race of Jesus Anointed, the son of David, son of Abraham." (Matthew 1:1-AST)

"You have heard that it was said to the ancients, 'You will not mongrelize or corrupt the seedline.'" (Matthew 5:27-AST)

"But answering, He said to them, 'An evil race of mongrels seeks a sign, and a sign will not be given it, except the sign of Jonah the prophet.'" (Matthew 12:39-AST)

"'An evil and mongrel race seeks a sign, and a sign will not be given it, except the sign of the prophet Jonah.' And leaving them behind, He went away." (Matthew 16:4-AST)

"He said to Him, 'Which?' And Jesus said, 'You will not murder; you will not mongrelize; you will not steal; you will not bear false witness.'" (Matthew 19:18-AST)

"'Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you are like whitewashed graves, who outwardly indeed appear beautiful, but within are full of the bones of the dead and all mongrelization.'" (Matthew 23:27-AST)

"This is an evil race. It seeks a sign, and a sign will not be given it, except the sign of the prophet Jonah." (Luke 11:29-AST)

"The Pharisee stood praying these things to himself, 'God, I thank you that I am not as the rest of men, robbers and rapers, unjust, mongrelizors, or even this tax-collector.'" (Luke 18:11-AST)

"You know the commandments, 'Mongrelize not, murder not, steal not, lie not, honor your father and mother.'" (Luke 18:20-AST)

"Likewise also, these of perverted imagination mongrelize the flesh, hate mastership, and blaspheme the reputation." (Jude vs. 8-AST)

"But what things they do not know, they speak blasphemy of these, and what things they understand only instinctively, like animals without reasoning ability, they mongrelize by." (Jude vs. 10-AST)

"Through which means He has given to us the precious and very great promises, that through these, you might be partakers of the divine nature, escaping from the world's mongrelization by lust." (II Peter 1:4-AST)

"But most of all, those going after flesh in the lust of mongrelization, and despising mastership, darers, self-satisfied; they do not tremble at those of reputation, blaspheming." (II Peter 2:10-AST)

"But these as unreasoning natural beasts, having been born for capturing and mongrelizing, speaking evil in things of which they are ignorant; they will utterly perish in their mongrelization, being about to be defrauded of the wages of injustice, having regarded indulgence in the day to be pleasure, making a game of spots and blemishes, feasting along with you in their deceits, having eyes full of mongrelization and never ceasing from failure, seducing unsettles lives; having a heart having been exercised in greediness, cursed children." (II Peter 2:12-14-AST)

"For speaking hyperbolically of insignificance, they seduce by the lusts of the flesh, in unrestrained lusts, those who were just barely escaping the ones living in error, promising them freedom, themselves being slave of mongrelization; for by whom anyone has been overcome, even to this one, he has been enslaved. For if they have escaped the mongrelization of this world by a full knowledge of [our] Master and Savior, Jesus Anointed, and again being entangled, they have been overcome by these, then the last things are worse than the first." (II Peter 2:18-20-AST)

The foregoing verses should more than serve to illustrate how deceived the White men of this century truly are. I would hope that any truly God-fearing man would grasp the significance of these verses and start getting himself educated to the truth of the sanity of Christian Separatism. I am going to conclude this dissertation on the Standard of Unity by presenting the reader with a true and literal translation from the Greek of the Second Letter of the Ambassador John. John lays it on the line and tells who an antichrist is and who an antichrist is not. John tells us clearly what it means to abide and walk and continue in the truth of the Lord Jesus Christ, and all of these Scriptures presented should serve to illustrate to any reasonable man that we are not called to make silk purses out of sow's ears. We are not called to defile the communion of God by letting in every scumbag because he thinks that he is racially conscious. The standard of true racial consciousness is declared in the Word of God

The Second Letter of John

"The elder to the chosen lady and her children, whom I love in truth, and not I only, but also all those who have known the truth, because of the truth remaining among us, and will be with us forever. Favor be with you, peace from God the Father and the Jesus the Anointed, the Son of the Father, in truth and honorable brotherly love.

"I rejoiced greatly because I found your children walking in truth, as we received commandment from the Father. And now I request you lady, not as though writing a new command to you, but that which we had from the beginning, that we should love one another. And this is honorable brotherly love: that we should walk according to His commands. This is the command, even as you heard it from the beginning, that you should walk in it. Because many deceivers went out into the world, those not confessing Jesus the Anointed coming in the flesh. This is the deceiver and the anti-Anointed. Watch yourselves, lest you lose the things we worked out, but that you may receive a full reward. Everyone transgressing and not abiding in the teaching of the Anointed does not have God. The one abiding in the teaching, this one has the Father and the son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring forth this teaching, do not receive him into the household, and do not speak favorably to him. For he speaking favorably to him participates in his evil.

"Having many things to write to you, I do not intend to by means of paper and ink. But I have confidence to come to you, and to speak mouth to mouth, that our joy may be filled completely. The children of your chosen sister greet you."

In conclusion, I want to say that I am writing this on the third of January, 1995. For several years, we have been, in a nice way, trying to educate those in the White wing of the true realities of our heritage in the Word of God. In that process, we have encountered a number of stiff-necked, unteachable, unreasonable charlatans whose only interest in racial consciousness is to make money off of God's people. We have also encountered a great number of people who have come to the truth of the Identity message and brought with them the Judeo garbage that they were once enslaved in. We have also encountered Jews within the Identity movement seeking to manipulate the White Wing for their own purposes. All of this must be brought to a halt. The Sword of Separation must be laid at the root of the poisonous trees that have grown up amongst us. We must recognize clearly that if God-fearing and decent men do not get back to the true Word of God and stand in its defense, we, as a unique biological entity and creation of our Father, will be murdered, for Jesus said that thief comes but to steal, kill, and destroy. Do not think that the mongrel thief will stop at stealing your heritage or enslaving you by his dream of a new world order of Jewish Zionism. The very lives of your children are at stake.

The very existence of your race and of the Christian State is at stake. We are now at a point in history where men will either submit to the Government and Rulership of the Word of the Living God or perish. Whenever God moves in a generation it is the responsibility of those in that generation to know those whom God has appointed among them. I do not apologize for being God's preacher in this generation. I did not ask for the job, I was born into it. But I am what I am in Christ Jesus, and my fondest desire in the very depths of my heart is to be a witness in favor of the true Israel of God and not a witness against it. I have gone to great lengths to prove everything that I have to say in accordance with the Christian law.

Therefore, I will conclude by saying this: Myself and the National Communion of Christian Separatists are quite willing and prepared to set down and get along with any White man concerned for his race whose is willing to admit the heritage of true Christianity. We believe that we can meet anyone upon the Standard of the Word of the Living God, and we know that in order to increase our number and to call the true Israel of God to the repentance of the Scripture, and to make friends and influence people as we must do in order to survive, we must tell it like it is. We must throw off the shackles of Jewish theology. We must stand firm on the truth of the Word of God in the original Greek autographs. For only therein is the way and means of uniting a divided house and a divided people. Let every Identity Christian pastor search the Scriptures and search their hearts and make sure that they are not out of line with the Word of God. Let every White man be willing to take the Word of God as his only standard of right thinking and sanity. And most importantly, let them be willing to abandon the strong delusions of Satan and the Jewish fables and those twistings of the Word of God that make the Word of God of no effect.

Let all God-fearing men meet in the Unity of the Scripture and within the only true Constitution for Christian Men whose first Citizenship is in the Government of God. My friends, brotherhood is but a bending of the knee away. True Christian Unity and the power of it and the revolution that our Father seeks to bring through it is but a decision of the will to believe away.

The Call of Christian Separatism

As a people, as the Chosen Race of God Almighty, we can no longer tolerate the Satanic attribute of selfishness among our people. The White Race has come to a point in its history when we shall either obey the Living God, separate from tyranny and evil, and live or perish from the earth as a people. Only a fool would fail to recognize that as a race, our backs are against the wall. There is no place to run, and no new lands to separate to. Our enemies have placed the heavy boot of false religion and false political patriotism upon our necks, and by this means, they are squeezing the very life blood from the purest of our race, but the God of Heaven and of nature has at no time forsaken His chosen people. He has sent upon the continents of this world fatal diseases, some far more lethal than AIDS that He is using to purify from among our number those wretched masses. In every generation, He has sent men of inspiration to carry His torch of truth in a world dark and dreary. The issue is never that God our Father has forsaken us, but the issue is always that to one degree or another we have forsaken Him and failed to walk worthy of so great a salvation.

Two thousand years ago, the Son of God brought the racial sanity of the Christian message to that pagan and Judaized world. From that time forward, the Eternal Government that He established in the Truth of His Separatist Teachings has been the only light of the world. The forces of darkness are continuously seeking to extinguish the light of truth. But God the Father is still in the inspiration business; He is still anointing His people with the ointment of the Spirit of Truth. And so at this dark hour, when the enemies of the Living God have already begun writing the epitaph of the White man, God our Father has moved, God our Father has spoken. He has once again placed in our hands the pure sanity of His Holy Word. He has renewed and inspired our minds by the washing of the water of that Word, and He has given us vision to look past the illusion of defeat and the shroud of darkness that our enemies have held before our eyes. But the road to victory, as ordained by Almighty God is the road that assures that all glory and honor shall be given to the King of kings. The Call of Christian Separatist Unity is for every Aryan White Man to love and to obey the quintessential White Man, Jesus the Christ.

The Love of Christ is not expressed in empty and vain words of religious ritual or speculative philosophy, but can only be expressed in actions of obedience. Thus, Christian Separatism calls for men to come to the sanity of the Scriptures, not in Jewish manipulated translations, but to the very voice of God that was penned down by His apostles in the original autographs of the Scriptures. Christian Separatism calls for men to return to their true heritage of a sane and rational faith, to meet in the unity of brotherhood upon the common ground of the Christian Scriptures; to continue therein and to be of one mind and one accord, all speaking and teaching the same things.

This call of Christian Separatism requires men to obey the Scripture and to study the Scripture as the noble Bereans, to prove if the teachings of Christian Separatism are true. As a communion, we do not ask men to follow the Christ of the Bible in blind and irrational romantic faith; we ask our White, Aryan brothers to meet us on the Holy Ground of Scripture and to be willing to obey and adhere to the Christian law of proving all things. We know that when men are willing to do this, to place themselves under the government of the Lord Jesus Christ, that unity and harmony shall be the product of all those fearfully approaching unto the sacred Word of the Living God, for where the Spirit of God is there is liberty. For the Scripture is the Sword of Separation, and to trod upon the path of salvation that our God has set before us, to enter the Government of the Christ, and to bring to fruition the final establishment of the Christian State, requires each man to search his heart and purge his mind from all Satanic propaganda and Jewish fables, and by that means to enter into the Government of God.

To rule and reign and claim the destiny of the Separated Ones of God requires a one hundred percent commitment, for nothing less will do. Entering the Government of God is comparable to jumping the space between two cliffs. If the distance to be jumped is twenty feet and a man is only willing to assert the effort to jump 18 feet, that man forfeits his life. At this time and at this hour, we as a race and a people have a number of problems to solve before we can bring the Christian State to fruition. Every soldier of the Living God must recognize these problems and address his or herself to the solving of those problems. The first problem is Jewish and pagan deception. It must be overcome as individuals and then collectively as a race. As a people we must purge ourselves from all pagan and Judaizing propaganda.

The Separatist Communion offers the solution to this problem by offering our people the sanity of the Scriptures. As we have said so often before, this requires, first, recognizing the Scriptures that our Lord and Master recognized to be Scripture, which was the Septuagint, and secondly, recognizing the literal translation of the Scriptures that our Father has given us in this generation of the Anointed Standard Translation of the New Testament.

Without complying with these two basic Christian Separatist principles, no White man can be an overcomer of his mongrelization of the mind nor ever come to know the truth that makes men free. Next, when men learn the source of truth, they must be willing to give full allegiance and loyalty to the truth of their God appointed Savior, who is Jesus Christ. They must be willing to present themselves as servants of the truth of the Separated Scriptures. The Christian Separatist Communion is the true brotherhood of Christ. It is the true manifestation of the Government of God on earth, yet it is a brotherhood. We do not have a pope or high priest, but Christ. We do not have a perishable temple, but the Living, breathing bodies of the Separated Ones of God. The Biblical principle that we adhere to is the Separatist principle that he who has the truth has the authority. He who has the truth has the anointing.

Those who continue to labor blasphemously by cloaking themselves in the guise of Christianity, while in truth they are led on by their greed or personal passions, are declared in the Scripture to be enemies of the Living God. They are called the twice dead children of Hell, because White men not living in obedience to the Mentality of Truth have sided themselves with the enemies of God. Christian law demands that these men be marked for what they are and for what they stand for. At this hour, there continues to be a great number of our people who have not yet had the opportunity to hear the message of Christian Separatist sanity. They are operating in unwillful ignorance. Unwillful ignorance has a remedy and that remedy is true knowledge. Therefore, Christian Separatism calls all White men to repent from the sin of ignorance unto the saving knowledge of truth delivered to us once and for all time by the Christian Scripture. Therefore, at this hour, the first order of duty is to take the Christian Separatist message of unity to all the racially pure Israel of God.

Those who repent of their Judaizing, Judeoism and mongrel paganism, shall be invited to stand shoulder to shoulder in the Christian State of Christ. After a second or third admonition, they will be exposed by the Sword of the Lord to be enemies of the Christian State. These Christian laws must be obeyed without preference to personalities. The Body of Christ must be purged from the rotting cancer of Judeo theology. Christ did not come to establish a phony peace, but to send forth the sword of His Word for the dislodging of those tares that have taken root among us. Christian Separatist Unity must be built upon the pure Word of God, for that is how God builds His house. The Government of Christ must be administered in truth and in honor. We can no longer tolerate men who claim to be the Israel of God bringing with them the damnable heresies of Jewish lies and Jewish myths. The Body must be freed of this infection that taps its strength and steals its money. It does not matter how sincere, or even how racially conscious men may pretend to be, if with the one hand they claim to give us the bread of the Children and with the other the poison of Jewish theology. They must be made to make a choice between the Covenant of Christ or the drinking of the cup of the Satanic enemies. Double-minded men are unstable and cannot be trusted, for the Master has said, men cannot eat of the bread of the Children and at the altar of Satan at the same time.

The mission of Christian Separatism is to present the clear and explicit choice between the two. We care not who we offend, nor shall we cater to women. The Sword of Truth is now laid at the root of the tares and will result in their gathering and their burning. Christian Separatist purification must begin at the household of God as it has already begun, for if scarcely shall the righteous enter in, where then stands the ungodly? There is within the White wing a certain number of men who use the truth of racism only as a means to make money. There is in the White wing men with Jewish and mongrel blood that have no business professing to be Christians or even racists. Racism is a Holy principle taught by Jesus Christ. It is the ancient law of God stated as "seed after its own kind." Those men who secularize and use the teachings of God to make merchandise of God's people do more harm than they do any good. They create false standards and false hopes and direct the people away from God's Appointed Savior. Other men whose personal lives would be an embarrassment to any Christian Communion must be purged.

One cannot have a purified mind and a mongrelized mind at the same time. In God's eyes, the man tainted with the darkening scum of Satanic principles upon his mind, whose personal philosophy results in calling God a liar and victimizing his own race is just as evil as the mongrel he professes to be against. Some may object that the Christian Separatist Standard of Unity is too high, that the price for the salvation of the White race is too great, but it is to be remembered that the standard for true unity and true brotherhood is firmly built upon the honor of God's Word. No brotherhood can exist without law or without rules of conduct. No nation can exist where the righteous are victimized by the lawless. The standards of God's Justice and Righteousness cannot be lowered to accommodate the failure of selfish men. God the Father has never instructed his servants to deal in numbers, but He has rather always called a remnant of men of honor. The affairs of nations have always been conducted by the few. The issue in God's Calling is not quantity, but quality.

Therefore, today, the Christian Separatist Communion calls all men who seek to do the good will of Almighty God on earth as it is in Heaven, we call them to the sanity of Christian Separatism. We invite them to prove or disprove the truth of Christian Separatism. Those who refuse and seek to walk in their ignorance by ignoring the truth of Christ must understand that one day their sins will find them out. After the Christian Separatist Communion has restored the conscious of the Christian State, we shall then move toward the practical principles of establishing the national Christian Socialist idea. There is no problem in modern America that does not have a rational solution, but the fundamental problem in America, and Europe for that matter, is that we do not have men with sufficient vision and understanding to implement the solutions to the problems. Today, we shall struggle in the first demands of Christian Separatism. Tomorrow, as God our Father provides opportunity, we shall bring to fruition the National Christian Socialist State. First, we must purge our own house with a clean and new broom. We then must tear down the strongholds of Judeo theology, for from this day forward, we shall not be on the defensive, but on the offensive. We are not among those who have lied to the people. We are not among those who compromise God's Truth for money. We are those who take hold of the Sword of Truth by which we shall destroy the Judeo preachers and their churches.

The next essential point that must herein be addressed is the idea of false patriotism. False patriotism is defined by any political philosophy that recognizes or defines nation by any other means than race. It therefore becomes important for every American who will be separated to Christ by the Word of God to recognize that their citizenship and allegiance must first be to the Government of Heaven, not to political creations of men. Our founding fathers, who fled the political tyranny of Catholic and Protestant states to separate unto the North American Continent, recognized the principle of separation to be the supreme principle upon which all other liberty is founded. The right to live separate from the tyrannical and insane political philosophies of those mongrelized in mind and to separate from evil was the very principle upon which American liberty was founded. In the first part of the Declaration of Independence, we note these words,

> "When in the Course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitles them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation."

It is self-evident that true Americanism is founded upon the principle of separation from evil. The provisions made by our early pioneering Christian Fathers in the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution for the cause of true Christian liberty to continue to exist by recognizing the inalienable right of man to live separate from tyranny and evil, coupled with the fact of the Federalist War of Northern Aggression against the Confederate States of the South make it clear that it was never the intention of our founding fathers to put the Constitution of the United States above the Holy Word of God nor even to claim that it was a divinely inspired document as do the mythological teachings of the Jewish controlled-Freemasons and other ignorant and ruthless enemies of freedom do so claim. The truth is that if our progenitors were alive today suffering the humiliation and slavery of despotic Jewish, mongreled policies, and seeing the wholesale murder of their racial kinsmen through the demonic practice of race mixing, those men in whose veins the pure Aryan blood of the Israel of God flowed would once again cry "Give me liberty or give me death." Those deceived into doubting the truth of these statements who preach the divine inspiration and infallibility of the constitutional government of the United States, need to earnestly read their own American history. They will find that the right of secession, or separation from tyranny or evil, was well understood by our pioneering fathers to be an inalienable right given by God and not men.

John Tilley, in his book entitled Facts the Historians Leave Out: A Confederate Primer, pgs. 32-35 says:

"You have read that some Northerners demanded that Robert E. Lee be executed for treason. And, maybe you know that the captors of Jefferson Davis subjected the aged man to torture which would have done credit to a horde of savages.

Were Lee and Davis and their followers criminals because of their exercise of the right to secede?

Let us go again to Abraham Lincoln. He said in 1847 on the floor of Congress:

'Any people, anywhere, being inclined and having the power, have the right to rise up and shake off the existing government, and form a new one that suits them better. This is a most valuable, a most sacred right, a right which we hope and believe is to liberate the world.'

Don't miss the point that 1847 was just thirteen years before the South began to secede. If what Lincoln taught was good doctrine in 1847, why not in 1860? And, did not 'any people, anywhere' take in the people of the South?

Little wonder than an English historian, Goldwyn Smith, commented that Southern secession could not have asked a clearer support than this statement by Lincoln.

Going further back: referring to the right to safety and happiness, the Declaration of Independence said:

"Whenever any form of government becomes destructive to these ends, it is the right of the people to abolish it, and to institute a new government."

And, a glance at some New England history may prove of interest.

In 1803, New England leaders grew white with rage over the idea of admitting Louisiana into the Union. Senator Plumer of New Hampshire said:

'The Eastern States must and will dissolve the Union and form a separate government of their own; and the sooner they do this, the better.'

Senator Pickering of Massachusetts wrote:

'I rather anticipate a new Confederacy exempt from the corrupt influence of the aristocratic Democrats of the South ... There will be a separation ... The British provinces (of Canada), even with the consent of Great Britain, will become members of the Northern Confederacy.'

There you have it! A Northern Confederacy.

You haven't read much about that in your histories, have you? Their plan did not succeed but they tried to carry it out.

Then, in 1814, New England held its famous 'Hartford Convention' which plainly considered secession from the Union.

Not only in 1814. Again in 1845, John Quincy Adams and fellow New Englanders so opposed the admission of Texas that they openly urged withdrawal from the Union.

1845 was just fifteen years before Southern secession.

Keep in mind that Virginia carefully reserved the right to leave the Union; all Southern States believed in such a right.

About the time of the graduation of Robert E. Lee and Jefferson Davis, West Point was using a text-book which left no doubt of the right of a State to withdraw.

So! When at last the South acted, it followed an example suggested by New England, first in 1803, again in 1814, and still again in 1845."

A true reading of American History leaves no doubt that true Americanism was based on the rights of men to separate from establishments of evil. True freedom cannot exist except men have the right of freedom of association and freedom of self determination. Thus the constitution of the United States was never framed or intended to supersede the rights of liberty given to White man by the Christian scriptures. It was rather framed in the hope of perpetuating the liberty of decency and justice delivered to man by God Himself. Those who cry, "right or wrong it is my country," are but cowardly men who are unworthy of the freedom bequeathed to them by the early American pioneers of freedom. The tyranny of federalism, established by the defeat of the southern states, was but the political orchestration of the international communist Jews, whose abolitionist propagandists were but a front for the Zionistic Jewish conspiracy to enslave the American White man and rewrite the state constitutions that had prevented the Jew from holding public office. Today we see the end result of Jewish political philosophy of multiculturalism that has brought about the destruction of the true American idea of liberty and justice and is quickly rendering the White man an alien in his own nation. When men no longer have the freedom to congregate or assemble themselves in geographic areas or states, to vote by law the will of the people against antichristian and immoral practices, and to thereby live free from the tyranny of evil, then such men are not free, but are in truth reduced to the slavery of a Jewish controlled federal government. The true American idea of freedom cannot exist without the right of separation. This true principle of Americanism is in sharp contrast to the age old mongrel philosophy of the Jewish Talmudists, who seek to destroy White Christian institutions and principles of freedom, to impose upon the White man their mongrelized values. The Jew is the preverter of justice, the destroyer of freedom, and a murderer of the White race. Those White men who surrender their inalienable rights to the mongrel-minded Jew, with his antiChrist designs, are they themselves antichrists and traitors to the White race.

Therefore, Christian Separatism calls all White men to be the patriots of God. To arrange the political priorities of their thinking to be first loyal and to seek first the Government of God and all of His righteousness. We are not lesser men than our fathers, nor must we allow ourselves to be seduced into the illusion that history somehow ended with the compromise we call the Constitution, because justice and freedom presents a test for its preservation and continuance in each and every generation. When those seduced by Jewish and Masonic propaganda from the truth of their own blood heritage may once again obey God, they will find that courage given by God to once again stand like men. We can no longer afford Romantic illusions that give us excuse to perpetuate the insufferable evil that has become the status quo and made a mockery of American liberty. We must return to the enabling faith of our Fathers, to find within ourselves the courage of the blood of our Heritage.

As we ask those to overcome their mislaid faith in a document long dead and the stench of its decay self-evident in the mongrelization of our society, to rise above the deception of the Masonic emperor worshippers, to join their White brothers in a new and lasting reformation of freedom, we also ask our National Socialist brothers whose scales of false patriotism have long since fallen from their eyes to recognize that we are after all Americans with an American heritage of good and noble men and a struggle of American Nationalism that is attested to by the thousands of Confederate and Union soldiers whose blood continues to cry for liberty. Ours is an American struggle. Ours is the struggle to procure and maintain our uniquely American national entity. Our enemies have sold our American sovereignty to the Internationalists and our fathers have turned over our wealth to the mongrels and the Jews. Therefore, we call upon National Socialists, Klansmen and Identity Christians and whosoever will to immediately unite upon the truth of Christian Separatist Unity.

Those deceived by Jewish fables and Judeo propagandists to have concluded atheism to be superior to Christianity must now, once again, reevaluate the truths of Christianity that have been hidden by the Jews and see Jesus Christ as He truly is.

This I promise you, that if the religionists will forsake Jewish myths and the patriot phony patriotism, and those atheists who misrepresent the founding principles of National Socialism will forsake their atheism, we shall forge a hammer and a sword of unbreakable steel that will result in the victory of the White race. Let ignorance be replaced with knowledge. Let lies be replaced with truth. Let each of us pledge ourselves to purifying our minds with the thoughts and ideas of our God and I promise you that we shall see the Government of the Justice of God on Earth and the restoration of freedom and decency. We must never forget that individually we are weak and can but only pray for the ravaging beast directed by the whore of Babylon, but together, uniting upon the Word of the Living God, we become strong and unbreakable. I cannot bring about the reformation of freedom and true Godly liberty by myself, but with your help and your commitment to the Truth of the Word of God we can together cause the triumph of Truth. We can together expose and bring to ruin the enemies of our God. For God is on our side and if God be for us, then who can stand against us? Let us drink of the water of life and refresh our political body and when refreshed let us mount up with the wings of eagles to seek out the enemies of our God.
